Memo

A. S No 137 of 1892-93

Appellant: Ramanna Shanbhog of Kodi-halli, Hiriyur Taluk by [illegible] Advocate

This is an appeal against the order of 27th Dec. 1892 passed by the Deputy Commr of Chitldroog dismissing the appellant from his Shanbhogi office.

In August 1892 the Amildar of Hiriyur received a pseudonymous petition to the effect that Lingegowda Patel of Yennegere & Appa-samudra had been getting two salt pans worked clandestinely without obtaining licenses for them.

A similar complaint was sometime afterwards lodged against the said Patel by one Adani Sirappa before
the Deputy Commr.

The Huildar held
an inquiry and report-
-ed to the Dy Commr that the appellant ~~had~~ appeared to have allowed ~~the~~ the salt pans to be worked clandestinely and that he (appellant) might therefore be prosecuted under the Rules.

The Deputy Commr
on hearing the parties
found that the appellt
had allowed two persons to work a salt pan on his own Khate land
and had received from them Rs 26 though he never obtained the

manufactured the salt, but alleged before the Dy Cent that he ~~did~~ paid Rs 26 to the Shanbhog & this, appt was criminally prosecuted, but he was acquitted therein as Dasa's testimony was considered unreliable, as appt lived in a separate village, & as there was nothing to prove his connivance. The Dy Cent however dismissed ~~Shanbhog~~ the appt from his office on the ground that it is impossible to believe that appt was really ignorant of the appeal is against the order.

with H. Dr Conr that it is difficult to

Misc: appeal No: of 1893.

Appellant

Ramanna Shanbogue of Kodihalli Hiriyur Taluk, Chitaldroog District.

The appellant most respectfully begs to prefer this appeal against the order of 21st December 1892 passed by the Deputy Commissioner of Chitaldroog for the following among other reasons:—

1. That the Deputy Commissioner has wrongly dismissed the appellant from his Shanbogue
2. That the General Assistant Commissioner and Sessions Magistrate of the Chitaldroog District in criminal case Nos: 364 & 2 of 1892 on the file of his Court found that no cases were made out against the appellant and discharged him on the 20th December 1892.
3. That the trial in the above two criminal cases goes to show that the appellant is entirely innocent of the charges brought against him.
4. That the Evidence adduced before the Revenue Authorities before the prosecution of the appellant entirely differ from the Evidence adduced before the Sessions Inspirates Court.

13. That the field in which Salt pans were worked being a Bunjer land there was no necessity for the appellants to go and see those lands.

For these reasons appellant prays that this Honorable Court will be pleased to send for the Judicial and Revenue records and after perusing them the Court finds that the appellant is innocent thereto reverse the order of the Deputy Commissioner and restore appellants to his Shandoge Shop.

Decision dated 21st January 1894

Salt was manufactured by one Daca on Appellants Khata land in the village of Honnageré without a licence for about 8 months.
Daca denied before the Amildar his having manufactured the salt, but alleged before the Deputy Commissioner that he paid Rs 20 to the Chambleg and manufactured the salt with his permission.
On this, appellant was criminally prosecuted, but the Magistrate — acquitted him, as Daca's testimony was not reliable, as appellant lived in a separate village, and as there was nothing to prove his connivance. The Deputy Commissioner however dismissed the appellant from his office in December 1932, on the ground that it is impossible to believe that appellant was really ignorant of the manufacture of salt on his own lands. The appeal is against this order.

2 The Government agree with the Deputy Commissioner that it is difficult to believe that appellant did not connive with Dasa in the manufacture of salt, but under the peculiar circumstances of the case, they consider that suspension from office for a period of 3 years will be sufficient.

The Deputy Commissioner is accordingly requested to declare Petitioner to vacate at the end of 3 years from the date he has been out of office.
